

U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT
21 June 1976

Washington Whispers.

PAB - 37

★ ★ ★

Some U.S. foreign-service officers are still hopping mad over the State Department's cover-up of the Soviets' beaming of microwaves into the Moscow Embassy. Says one: "No one ever warned us of the microwave risks when we were serving in the Embassy, or even warned us after we left."